JOIN US FOR 'BRING A FRIEND TO LEAGUE NIGHT' ON MARCH 18

Junior League of Cedar Rapids offers potential new members a chance to attend meeting.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa – Women looking to promote volunteerism, develop their potential, and improve their community are invited to Junior League of Cedar Rapids' (JLCR's) "Bring a Friend to League Night" on Tuesday, March 18, 2008. The organization provides education and training in areas as diverse as event planning, fundraising and team building.

"Bring a Friend to League Night" allows potential members to learn more about the non-profit organization, meet current JLCR members, and experience a typical monthly meeting. Social time takes place prior to the meeting at 6:00 p.m. at the Clark Alumni House at Coe College, located at 1220 First Ave. NE, Cedar Rapids. At 6:45 p.m., a short presentation addressing the benefits of membership will be explained. The meeting itself begins at 7:00 p.m.

In the last year, JLCR awarded $3,000 in grants to five local organizations and announced a partnership with Cedar Valley Habitat for Humanity, in which women will provide the labor for the building of a local Habitat home. The organization's annual fund-raisers help make these projects a reality.

To RSVP, or for more information, please contact the Junior League of Cedar Rapids at (319) 364-7892 or visit the website at www.juniorleaguecr.org.

Founded in 1934, the Junior League of Cedar Rapids is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. For more information, please visit www.juniorleaguecr.org
